

Microsoft Effective License Position (ELP) in a Box

Available by invitation for qualifying UK organizations.

The Challenge

Maintaining a clear Microsoft license position becomes increasingly difficult as environments evolve. Organizations often face:

- Limited visibility into actual usage and entitlement alignment
- Growing complexity across users, infrastructure, and agreements
- Difficulty identifying optimization opportunities
- Uncertainty ahead of renewals and strategic decisions
- Limited confidence due to fragmented information and reporting

Our Solution

Our Microsoft ELP in a Box service provides a focused Effective License Position review designed to deliver clarity, practical recommendations, and executive-ready outputs. We provide:

- Review and validation of software, hardware, and entitlement data
- Development of a structured Effective License Position (ELP)
- Written findings and recommendations report
- Executive presentation and stakeholder-ready outputs
- Visibility and optimization insights to support future decisions

Your Outcome

- Clearer visibility of your Microsoft license position
- Improved understanding of usage and entitlement alignment
- Practical recommendations to support future decisions
- Executive-ready reporting for internal stakeholders
- Greater confidence ahead of renewal and optimization activities

Our Core Services

Effective License Position (ELP)

We establish a structured Microsoft License position using agreed inventory and entitlement information.

Provides visibility and supports informed decision-making

Data Review & Validation

We review software, hardware, and entitlement information to establish a reliable foundation for analysis.

Improves confidence in findings and recommendations

Findings & Recommendations

We develop practical observations and prioritized recommendations based on review outputs.

Supports optimization and future planning

Executive Reporting

We translate findings into stakeholder-ready outputs designed to support internal alignment.

Creates clarity and supports executive engagement

Why ITAA?

- Independent Microsoft licensing expertise with no reseller bias
- Experience supporting complex Microsoft environments
- Practical recommendations designed for decision-making
- Executive-ready outputs tailored for stakeholder engagement
- Trusted advisory focused on outcomes and long-term value

Let's talk: Book a 15-min strategy call

Visit our website or email us at info@itaa.com